- THE ADMIRAL. An intense blue, but not really a dark shade. The form size and finish are outstanding. Withstands severest weather, and blooms over a long period.65c; 3 for $1.75
- THE RED DOUGLAS. Impressive blooms on a splendid plant. The deep wine red color is enriched by a brown toned center and orange beard. Perfectly hardy. 75c; 3 for $2.00
- TIFFANJA. A plicate of soft shades and fashionable form. Buff tinted gold standards curve gracefully above cream white falls, which have a feathered border of golden-buff brown.65c; 3 for $1.75
- TOP SCORE. A brilliant variegata. Clear bright yellow standards, and rounded falls of rich chestnut brown to mahogany, with clear deep yellow, edging. Distinct and colorful.75c; 3 for $2.00
- TOWER OF JEWELS. An iris of superior beauty and great popularity. A blending of gold, pale yellow and mauve. Unusually tall and well proportioned. Salbach introduction.75c; 3 for $2.00
- TOBACCO ROAD. Big golden tobacco-brown self. Very popular$1.00; 3 for $2.50
- TABASCO. Large yellow plicate. Both standards and falls are yellow, flushed and dotted with red, which gives the whole flower, a red effect.$2.00
- TRULY YOURS. Very unusual iris. The heart of the flower is bright yellow, shading to white at the edge of the petals. The unopened buds and under side of the falls are a bright yellow. Blooms of large size, and are heavily ruffled and lace edged. Hardy. Stock limited.$3.00
- TOP FLIGHT. Deep apricot self, with firey orange beard. Fine finish and very appealing color.$2.50
- VANITY FAIR. We put this on our "must have" list when we first saw it growing under number. Flowers of fine substance and silken finish appear in a new refreshing medium pink shade. Bright tangerine orange beard for accent.$3.00; 3 for $8.00
- VATICAN PURPLE. Splendid royal-blue self of handsome form and heavy substance. Sunshine on the rich petals brings to life highlights of the majical beauty. Tall and vigorous.75c; 3 for $2.00
- WABASH. This well known iris received the highest award in 1940. White standards in beautiful contrast above the deep violet blue falls, which are trimmed with a white border. Slightly ruffled.65c; 3 for $1.75
- WHITE PEACOCK. A truly beautiful iris of soft blue white. One of the largest of all iris. Beautifully ruffled broad falls of heavy substance. Tall well branched stems. Very outstanding.$3.25; 3 for $8.00
- WILLIAM A SETCHELL. One of the largest iris. Giant blooms have standards 7 inches tall and enormous falls 3½ inches wide and 4 inches long. Steel blue standards and deep violet falls. Tall well branched sturdy stalks. Hardy.75c; 3 for $2.00
- YELLOW ORGANDY. Lovely crisp ruffled yellow, with a hint of green undertone. Large blooms of firm substance on tall well branched stems. Very rugged grower.$3.00

YOUR INVITATION TO VISIT

Our Display Garden

VISITORS WELCOME—Come early and stay late. Enjoy the breathtaking beauty of a field of iris in bloom. The perfection of the individual flowers, and the amazing array of colors will give you a delightful experience.

PEAK BLOOM—The height of our blooming season is from late April to mid-May.

HOW TO FIND US—The Salbach Gardens are located on the eastern slope of the North Berkeley Hills.

Leaving downtown Berkeley, drive out Spruce Street to the water reservoir. Continue down Spruce Street 300 feet to the intersection of Canyon Road and Woodmont Avenue. Drive up Woodmont approximately 1/3 of a mile to the Salbach Gardens.
